Secretary's Message

Once again, let me remind you all that it is NOT too late to pay your dues. You can still get in on all the fun that we have to offer here at the Lodge, there is always something going on! There are only a few of you who haven't paid. Wouldn't be great if we could be at a 100% paid membership?

Not only would we be known as the Friendliest Lodge on the West Coast, but the only one with 100% paid membership, wouldn't that be something?

Winter will be here before you know it, where will you be when we are all here inside having the time of our lives? Pay your dues!

A New Addition to Our Family of Elks

Seminole Elks #2519 has adopted the 1775th M.P. Co. from Pontiac, MI. This unit is deployed near Kandahar Afghanistan. A member of this unit is SPC Brian Tyler, son of Leading Knight Craig Tyler. Brian is a combat field medic serving his 2nd tour of duty. His 1st tour was 16 months at Abu Ghraib detention center in 2005/2006. We will be sending the unit an official letter of our adoption along with donations from our Lodge. Let's show how much we appreciate their service and sacrifice in supporting our freedom and the war on terror. A list will be posted in the Lodge and in the next bulletin of things they could use. VFW Post #9272 of Seminole will ship all of our packages to them. Dates will be posted for packing boxes and shipping. Every year we hope to adopt a unit overseas and hope that this will become a trend with all Lodges. If you have any questions, contact Craig at 727-871-6939. We support and stand behind the men and women of our armed forces.

Thank You and Thanks to ALL the veterans who have made us proud to be Americans.

L.O.E. President's Message

Dear Ladies and Members,

July started off with a BANG! The Ladies did their 4th of July platters with pulled pork, lots of watermelon and coleslaw. Did I forget to say LOTS of watermelon? The platters were something different than the usual burgers and dogs. The food was great and everyone enjoyed the afternoon. Thank you Catherine Dye for chairing this event for us. Job well done! Than on July 10th, we had our Beach Party. It was a great turn out. Our WCDVP Steve Harmon and his fiancée Anna Marie joined us along with their two sons Kevin and Alex. The boys won so many prizes that they needed a big beach bag to carry everything home. The bikini contest was a tie, it was won by Suzy Struthers and Catherine Dye. Great Suites Ladies! Real eye pop-pers...Debbie Connell and brother Ronnie Rayburn slaved over a hot grill to serve us fantastic hamburgers and hot dogs. Thank You both! We can always count on you for helping us Ladies. Also Thanks to the Ladies that brought salads and baked beans, Linda Broff, Marilyn Vail, Suzy Struthers, Marge Orr, Awanda Boss, Catherine Dye and myself Sam Simpson. I think you all agree that home made is always wonderful. Then there was Bob Nauman hidden under the beach umbrella serving up ice cream cones. He didn't want to get sun burned or have his ice cream melt. Thank you for the coolest job ever! Thank you to Rick Mercier for keeping the beat and all of you fans who enjoyed great singing and wonderful food, for coming out to support us Ladies and all of you who helped put this Lazy Hazy Day together. Don't forget the FLOE Conference coming up September 22nd -24th. This year it will be held in Tampa. So close to home that there should be no excuses not to be there. To find out all of the events and meeting times, log on to flaelks.com., we have our own web page. See you all at the VP visits-keep up the great attendance!

Enclosing, Lets be ever mind full of my motto and Leon's " Making a Difference" and " Always be Friendly and Follow Your Heart".
