MESSAGE FROM YOUR EXALTED RULER

Dear Members,

It has come to be that time of year, when Easter Sunday has come and gone and it was a very nice day at the Lodge as I had hoped it would be. It has been my privilege to have an Elk such as Doris Ward Jacobs, with such ability to present such a fine Mothers Day Program, and I thank you from the bottom of my heart for all your hard work on this. Thank You !

To some people being able to say THANKS is a rather small and trivial thing. But for me and through my eyes it means a lot, especially when you have people who are so instrumental in making things work at the Lodge. Our VOLUNTEERS, and one comes to mind for making our smoking room look like a new place for our smokers! THANKS RONNIE !! A job well done and it really does look nice and compliments the Lodge.

Just a reminder for everyone that our District VP schedule starts on June 4th and I hope that everyone would attend, as we would like to keep the trophy in attendance at our Lodge. When attending these visits we learn of other projects and forth comings of the ELKS as we know it today. Keep informed of the ever changing Elks attend the VP visits you will be glad you did.

I would like to introduce a new project that I'm very excited about and with the help and excitement from Mike and Becky Pierson we have constructed the drawings of three thermometers, one being for "Harry Anna Trust", second one, "Elks National Foundation" and the third "The Building Fund". This way we can show our progress after the first quarter. Please continue to show us your support in these projects by supporting them and watching our numbers grow!

Last but nor forgotten I would like to Thank, Marge DeLevante our Lodge Secretary for a wonderful program she put together for the Veterans Appreciation Day that we celebrated with Lake Seminole Presbyterian Church . It gave us all a moment to THANK in our hearts, minds and souls, all of those who from years ago, still though today for our FREEDOM as we live it today, and see it tomorrow and remember forever in our hearts. THANK YOU MARGE ! God Bless our Soldiers!

"ALWAYS BE FRIENDLY AND FOLLOW YOUR HEART"

A New Addition to Our Family of Elks

Seminole Elks #2519 has adopted the 1775th M.P. Co. from Pontiac, MI. This unit is deployed near Kandahar Afghanistan. A member of this unit is SPC Brian Tyler, son of Leading Knight Craig Tyler. Brian is a combat field medic serving his 2nd tour of duty. His 1st tour was 16 months at Abu Ghraib detention center in 2005/2006. We will be sending the unit an official letter of our adoption along with donations from our Lodge. Let's show how much we appreciate their service and sacrifice in supporting our freedom and the war on terror. A list will be posted in the Lodge and in the next bulletin of things they could use. VFW Post #9272 of Seminole will ship all of our packages to them. Dates will be posted for packing boxes and shipping. Every year we hope to adopt a unit overseas and hope that this will become a trend with all Lodges. If you have any questions, contact Craig at 727-871-6939. We support and stand behind the men and women of our armed forces.

Thank You and Thanks to ALL the veterans who have made us proud to be Americans.

L.O.E. President's Message

Dear Ladies and Members,

It gives me great pleasure to be serving all of you as Lady President for the second time in Seminole Lodge 2519. I honor all of you ladies that have served in this capacity before me.

As I write this article, I speak for all of the ladies. We give our all for you as members, as a whole to Seminole Lodge. We have a strong belief in Elkdom and what they stand for.

As we all know, times are changing and it is getting harder everyday to meet our goals and keep us all together. Not just in our lodge but all over the country. I don't mind telling you all----We need your help if we are going to keep us all together. Working together as a family hand in hand, we can accomplish our goals. This is not just a repeat statement it is a WAKE UP CALL!

My motto this year is "MAKING A DIFFERENCE". I TRULY BELIEVE THIS FOLLOWS Leon's Motto: "ALLWAYS BE FRIENDLY AND FOLLOW YOUR HEART".

I wish to thank Debbie Connell for spear heading the Ladies Installation for us. It was a lot of work for her and we greatly appreciated it. My many thanks to all that helped her and much thanks to all who worked behind the scenes who brought it altogether. I cannot name you all for fear of forgetting some one.

Last but not least, Leon Struthers our ER. THANK YOU!
