MESSAGE FROM YOUR EXALTED RULER

Dear Members,

It seems that the month of October has gone by unusually fast and taking a quick look at the calendar we only have about 53 more shopping days until CHRISTMAS ?! The weather is beginning to get a little cooler and our members who go North for the Summer are now making their way back South for the Winter! Welcome back to our Lodge. I hope to see you at our Lodge this winter season. We have man great things in store for the coming months, so be sure to stick around and keep the Lodge in mind for your pleasure while you are here.

We have so many things going on, that the calendar is just jammed, so everyone should have a full dance card in the next couple of months, not only with the Holidays, but with the activities going on at our Lodge. Please read the Bulletin and check the Bulletin Boards often. You don't want to miss a thing!!

The Annual Golf Tournament held on October 4th was the absolute best ever for our Lodge. We had 26 teams competing and the fun just didn't stop on the course. Everyone enjoyed lunch and won great prizes back at our Lodge. I would like to thank Ralph & Shirley Dedman, Harry & Dee Rood. With out you, the Tournament would of not been such a successful endeavor ! THANK YOU...Again, thanks to Dee and Shirley for an outstanding job you did in securing the door prizes and the sponsors. Thank you for a job well done!

To start off the month of November, please remember to come to the Lodge for the L.O.E. Annual Homemade Turkey Dinner on the 1st. BBQ Sunday will be the second Sunday on the 8th due to the L.O.E. Turkey Dinner. A Football Party on November 15th and 22nd, food will be available. Once again, the Elks are contributing to ring in the Holidays. Ladies and men join us by appointment only at the Seminole Mantrap where services are only $10.00 each and the employees are donating their time and proceeds back to our Lodge. Please remember they are using their time for us, tips are appreciated. Call Mantrap at 727-393-8751 for an appointment. Their services are from Noon-til 5:00 p.m. The Elks also do a THANKSGIVING DINNER on Thanksgiving Day (26th) at the Lodge, all the trimmings, and fixings from 4-7:00 p.m. $8.50 per person. Sorry, no Bar Bingo this evening.

Mid-year convention will be held at Lake Mary Marriot from November 12-14th with more information at the Lodge. We also have the Elks National Foundation Dinner-Dance (ENF) on November 21st. Our Lodge ENF Chairman Leon Struthers has a special evening in store, and I'm sure none of you want to miss it. To finish just the month of November, we have on the 28th the Seminole Lions Club breakfast and the Blood Drive coordinated by Doug Schwartz, PER. Please try to attend as much as you can, not just to support the Lodge but for the enjoyment and fun you will have with others. The Holidays are here !!!!

“UNITY THROUGH CARING AND SHARING”

Fraternally,

L.O.E. President's Message

Dear Members:

With all this warm weather can anyone believe it is November ?! It is my sad duty to inform all that Fran Booth passed away. We will all miss her. October 4th was the Annual Elks Golf Tournament. A fun time was had by all and the lunch was delicious. Once again I lost to Jack Nunan but there is always next year ! On the 10th we hosted the Inaugural Ball for our own Enid "Sam" Simpson, State President of the Florida Ladies of Elks. It was great seeing so many Seminole members there along with all the other Lodges in the West Central District. I think everyone had a great time and I know that "Sam" really appreciated your support.

October 11th, Marion Schindler and her crew held another successful Chinese Auction. Catherine Dye put out a great lunch. I want to thank all the ladies for their donations, cakes and time. Without your support nothing would happen. Get your appetites ready...The L.O.E. Annual Turkey Dinner and Elks Turkey Shoot is the 1st of November. The ladies are already warming up their ovens to roast those turkeys and pies. Our Business meeting is on the 2nd and the Board meeting is the 23rd.

I want to wish all of you a very Happy Thanksgiving

Please check the bulletin board for all the up coming events and remember "Together we can do anything"

In friendship,
Jean Sloan, PLP
 President
