A New Addition to Our Family of Elks

Seminole Elks #2519 has adopted the 1775th M.P. Co. from Pontiac, MI. This unit is deployed near Kandahar Afghanistan. A member of this unit is SPC Brian Tyler, son of Leading Knight Craig Tyler. Brian is a combat field medic serving his 2nd tour of duty. His 1st tour was 16 months at Abu Ghraib detention center in 2005/2006. We will be sending the unit an official letter of our adoption along with donations from our Lodge. Let's show how much we appreciate their service and sacrifice in supporting our freedom and the war on terror. A list will be posted in the Lodge and in the next bulletin of things they could use. VFW Post #9272 of Seminole will ship all of our packages to them. Dates will be posted for packing boxes and shipping. Every year we hope to adopt a unit overseas and hope that this will become a trend with all Lodges. If you have any questions, contact Craig at 727-871-6939. We support and stand behind the men and women of our armed forces.

Thank You and Thanks to ALL the veterans who have made us proud to be Americans.

L.O.E. President's Message

Dear Ladies and Members,

The end of July and all of August has been rather slow for us Ladies. But we are gearing up for some busy times ahead. L.O.E. conference is to be held September 22nd thru the 24th. I hope that all of you have registered and have made your plans to have a good time. Ron and I plan to host the hospitality room. This will give you guys a place to hang out while us Ladies are in meetings. So bring your drink of choice and any goodies that you wish. Lets have fun and enjoy! The Ladies are planning a Harvest Moon dance on October 15th, so mark your calendars. The food and music will be announced at a later date. I hope to see you all at the State Presidents visit September 17th, try to attend if you can. Also don't forget our Seminole Anniversary dinner and dance on the 18th.

Lets be ever mindful of my motto and Leon's "Making a Difference" and "Always be Friendly and Follow your Heart"

Enid "Sam" Simpson, PSP
President

Thank You L.O.E.

We have been using the gift from the Ladies from the year 2010-2011 for the betterment of our lodge. Thanks to the Ladies we have the new drapes and valances around the stage which has certainly dressed up the room. We have also used funds for the purchase of new shelving in the pantry, a new monitor and two surveillance cameras. We are still in our beautification process, so be sure to come and enjoy our efforts. The funds you give us and all of your hard work helping us are much appreciated.
